DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-25, 27 and 33-37 are pending in the instant application and are subject to the following lack of unity requirement.

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claims 1-25 and 27, drawn to compounds and pharmaceutical compositions comprising compounds of formula (I).

Group II, claims 33 and 34, drawn to a method of using a compound of formula (I).

Group III, claim 35, drawn to a method of preparing enantiomerically enriched-(trans)-ethyl-2-(4-amino-aryl)-cyclopropanecarboxylates.

Group IV, claims 36 and 37, drawn to compounds of formula IIIId and formula IIIe.

The inventions listed as Groups I-IV do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

Groups I-IV include compounds of different formulas (i.e., formulae (I), IIIId and IIIe) which do not have a common core structure within the chemical structure of each compound. For example, the compounds of formula (I) consist of -OH and -NR₂R₃ for A whereas the compounds of formulas IIIId and IIIe consist of OEt. Also, the compounds of formulas IIIId and IIIe do not have the substituents X₂, Y or Z in their structure.

This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1. Therefore, there is not a special technical feature present which links the claims as defined by PCT Rule 13.2.

Accordingly, Groups I-IV are not so linked by the same or a corresponding special technical feature as to form a single general inventive concept.

The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and the product claims are subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be considered for rejoinder. All claims directed to a nonelected process invention must require all the limitations of an allowable product claim for that process invention to be rejoined.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103 and 112. Until all claims to the elected product are found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowable product claim will not be rejoined. See MPEP § 821.04(b). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution to require the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder. Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.

Election of Species

Applicant is further required to elect a single disclosed species within the elected group and to provide the structure of the elected species. For example, if Group I is elected for prosecution, Applicant must disclose a single compound of formula (I) (i.e., a compound from claim 25). A single disclosed species is also required if any of Groups II-IV is elected for prosecution.

The species are as follows: the various structurally different compounds of formula (I) (i.e., a compound of formula (I) wherein A is -OH is structurally different than a compound of formula (I) wherein A is -NR₂R₃) and the structurally different compounds of formulas IIId and IIle.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner: the compounds of formula (I) correspond to claims 1-25, 27 and 33-35, the compound of formula IIId corresponds to claim 36 and the compound of formula IIle corresponds to claim 37.

The following claims are generic: 1-25, 27 and 33-35.

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: for example, a compound of formula (I) wherein A is -OH is structurally different than a compound of formula (I) wherein A is -NR₂R₃, therefore, these compounds are different species or they lack the same core structure or special technical feature. Also, the compounds of claims 36 and 37 are structurally different, therefore, they are different species or they lack the same core structure or special technical feature.
